

Articulation Agreements

For publication on school web-site and or college navigotor as applicable per new federal HEOA requirements.

Everest University (all on-ground and on-line)

Everest University has articulation agreements with the following institutions: CompuCollege, CDI College, Elmira Business Institute, Mountain State University and Nova Southeastern University. Students should contact their Everest University campus Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College (all Everest College locations)

Everest College has an articulation agreement with Kaplan University under which students completing a diploma, certificate or degree program at Everest College may be eligible to transfer into Kaplan University bachelor degree program. Students may also be eligible for a limited tuition discount. Students should contact their Everest College campus Director of Education for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College Phoenix

Everest College Phoenix has an articulation agreement with the University of Phoenix. Students should contact the Everest College Phoenix Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College, Ontario Metro

Everest College has an articulation agreement with Argosy University and University of Phoenix. Students should contact the Everest College Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College, Tyson's Corner

Everest College, Tyson's Corner has an articulation agreement with University of Phoenix. Students should contact the Everest College Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College, Salt Lake City

Everest College, Salt Lake City has an articulation agreement with the University of Phoenix. Students should contact the Everest College Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.

Everest College, Brandon

Everest College, Brandon has an articulation agreement with the University of Phoenix. Students should contact the Everest College Dean for additional information on articulation agreement transfer terms and conditions.