Everest's faculty, staff and students have a deep respect for one another, and for the diversity of experiences and cultures each one brings to campus life. Together, we've created a rich environment for earning a diploma, associate, bachelor's or master's degree, as well as for experiencing individual growth and success. We open doors to new worlds, new ways of thinking and rewarding new experiences.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Everest offers:

- Diverse diploma and degree programs
- Special services for international students
- Streamlined degree completion
- No Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) required for master's degree program admittance
- Intensive English programs available
WHO WILL YOU BECOME? At Everest University, we want you to find yourself, not get lost in the crowd.

We understand that college can be a challenge, especially for students in a new environment. At Everest, we do everything we can to make the transition to college life more manageable and enjoyable.

That means limited class sizes and personal attention from instructors who have real-world experience in their industries and subjects. This creates an atmosphere of support and openness.

Everest University provides a great learning environment, one that is committed to our international students. Our streamlined programs offer a diverse and balanced education that can help prepare you for today’s global challenges.
